NAV/Share 2.2472 A court has appointed the Connecticut Commissioner of Insurance to rehabilitate financially distressed PHL Variable Insurance Company (PHL) and its subsidiaries, halting all creditor claims and suspending insurance agents' authority to issue or modify policies. The rehabilitation, prompted by high-value life insurance policies maturing and significant investment in low-grade securities, aims to safeguard policyholders and creditors. The Connecticut Insurance Department has issued a temporary moratorium which limits death benefits payouts to $300,000 per individual and requires continued premium payments, until a Plan of Rehabilitation if developed. The plan is expected to be developed over the next 12 months. Legal actions against the companies are stayed, and policyholders are informed of their rights to participate in future hearings. There are currently 26 PHL policies in the portfolio. 5 policies have face value above $300,000. We will keep following the rehabilitation plan.

The Share Class is reporting a performance of -0.79% for the month of May. Twelve HIV maturities were registered, contributing a total Death Benefit of $0.7M; no maturity was registered in the non-HIV segment this month. A group of tiny face policies were lapsed in May. Portfolio info is updated in the table below.
