Furthermore, the Investment Manager will not have long exposure in indices where 30% or more of the underlying securities are on the exclusions list. In addition to this rule, the aggregate long exposure via derivatives to excluded securities will not exceed 5% net equity exposure and this exposure will be monitored to ensure alignment to the exclusion policy. Measuring the exposure involves assessing the price sensitivity of the derivatives to changes in the price of the underlying securities.. Step 2: Through applying a defined set of ESG scoring criteria, the Investment Manager, invests at least 70% of long sovereign debt exposures and 70% of long individual company equity exposures in securities exhibiting positive ESG. In addition to this minimum requirement, positive ESG characteristics are also identified according to the Investment Manager's proprietary assessment of a company / issuer's management of ESG issues relevant to the specific industry, activity or country and exposure to areas such as climate risk, green transport and infrastructure, social advancement and health and wellness.

The Investment Manager carries out a proprietary assessment of ESG criteria to identify any risks and opportunities of potential investments across debt securities and equities. The assessment is based on proprietary internal research and incorporates external insights as well as dedicated ESG analysis and scoring from third-party providers. Such assessment generally includes, without limitation, an analysis of issuer regulatory filings, annual reports, websites, direct and regular communication with issuers, media, third-party research and data providers and government officials, economic surveys and reports. This analysis and the relevant data is inputted into the Investment Managers proprietary assessment and informs investment decisions. The proprietary assessment is ongoing and the Investment Manager continually reviews the holdings against the ESG criteria. Third party data may be subject to limitations in respect of its accuracy and / or completeness.
