Mr. Jian He, Chairman and CEO of LightInTheBox, commented, "In 2023, as we strategically focused on high-quality development, we delivered hard-won results amid the challenging macro environment and increasingly competitive landscape. Our full-year revenues increased by 25% year-over-year to $629.4 million, driven by apparel sales which accounted for over 82% of our total revenues. Our continuous efforts and investments in our proprietary technologies and data analytics capabilities enabled us to better align our products, services and marketing strategies with consumer preferences and demands. We also improved our profitability, with full-year adjusted EBITDA loss narrowing by 34% year-over-year to $6.3 million.

"Heading into 2024, we will navigate the evolving market dynamics with a greater emphasis on enhancing customer experience and honing our localized operations in key markets such as the United States, while strengthening our brand awareness to attract organic traffic and increase marketing efficiency. As always, we are committed to pursuing healthy, sustainable development and delivering value for our stakeholders in the long run," Mr. He concluded.

The financial statements for the full year ended December 31, 2023 in this press release have not been audited or reviewed by the Company's independent registered accounting firm. The audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 to be disclosed in the Company's Form 20-F may have discrepancies with the above-mentioned unaudited financial statements.

Share Repurchase Program

On June 27, 2023, the Company's board of directors authorized a share repurchase program under which the Company may repurchase up to $10 million of its ordinary shares in the form of ADSs no later than December 31, 2023. In December 2023, the Company authorized the extension of the share repurchase program through March 31, 2024. As of March 20, 2024, the Company had repurchased 2.5 million ADSs with a total aggregate value of approximately $3.0 million.

Business Outlook

For the first quarter of 2024, based on current information available to the Company and business seasonality, the Company expects net revenues to be between $70 million and $80 million.

Non-GAAP Financial Measure

In evaluating the business, the Company considers and uses a non-GAAP measure, Adjusted EBITDA, as a supplemental measure to review and assess operating performance. The presentation of this non-GAAP financial measure is not intended to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). The Company's non-GAAP financial measure excludes share-based compensation expenses, impairment loss on investment, depreciation and amortization expenses, interest income, interest expenses and income tax expense.

The Company presents this non-GAAP financial measure because it is used by management to evaluate operating performance and formulate business plans. The Company believes that the non-GAAP financial measure helps identify underlying trends in its business. The Company also believes that the non-GAAP financial measure could provide further information about the Company's results of operations and enhance the overall understanding of the Company's past performance and future prospects.

The non-GAAP financial measure is not defined under U.S. GAAP and is not presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The non-GAAP financial measure has limitations as an analytical tool. The Company's non-GAAP financial measure does not reflect all items of income and expenses that affect the Company's operations and does not represent the residual cash flow available for discretionary expenditures. Further, the non-GAAP measure may differ from the non-GAAP information used by other companies, including peer companies, and therefore their comparability may be limited. The Company compensates for the limitations by reconciling the non-GAAP financial measure to the nearest U.S. GAAP performance measure, all of which should be considered when evaluating performance. The Company encourages you to review the Company's financial information in its entirety and not rely on a single financial measure.

For more information on the non-GAAP financial measure, please see the table captioned "Unaudited and unreviewed Reconciliations of GAAP and Non-GAAP Result" set forth at the end of this press release.

Receipt of Non-compliance Letter from NYSE Regarding ADS Trading Price

Following the receipt of the notification, the Company has six months to bring its security price and average security price back above US$1.00. The Company can regain compliance at any time during the six-month cure period if on the last trading day of any calendar month during the cure period the Company's ADSs have a closing price of at least $1.00 per ADS and an average closing price of at least $1.00 per ADS over the 30 trading-day period ending on the last trading day of that month. In the event that at the expiration of the six-month cure period, both a $1.00 closing price per ADS on the last trading day of the cure period and a $1.00 average closing price per ADS over the 30 trading-day period ending on the last trading day of the cure period are not attained, the NYSE will commence suspension and delisting procedures.

The Company has notified the NYSE on March 21, 2024 of its intention to cure such deficiency. The Company intends to monitor the market conditions of its listed securities and will consider various measures to cure the deficiency. The Company's ADSs will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE, subject to compliance with other NYSE continued listing standards and other rights of the NYSE to delist the ADSs. The Company is currently in compliance with all other NYSE continued listing standards. The NYSE notification does not affect the Company's business operations or its Securities and Exchange Commission reporting requirements.
