What is this product?

Type

The Company is registered with limited liability in Jersey as a closed-end investment company under the Companies (Jersey) Law 1991 with registered number 95064. The Company is subject to the Financial Conduct Authority Rules and also the listing rules of the New Zealand Stock Exchange.

Objectives

The Company seeks to provide shareholders with a growing total annual dividend per share, as well as capital appreciation, from a diversified portfolio of shares (equity securities) and other securities of companies that are either listed in, registered in, or whose principal business is in, the Asia Pacific region. In addition, the Company may also invest in unlisted securities which are expected to list, preference shares, fixed income securities, convertible securities, warrants and collective investment schemes. The Asia Pacific region includes Japan, the Indian subcontinent and Australasia. The Company may use financial instruments known as derivatives for the purpose of efficient portfolio management or to generate additional income while maintaining a level of risk consistent with the risk profile of the Company. The Company can borrow to make additional investments with the aim of achieving a return that is greater than the cost of the borrowing. The Company may borrow up to 30% of gross assets without shareholder approval to facilitate working capital management and to seek a better total return for shareholders.

Intended Retail Investor

Investors (retail, professional and eligible counterparties) with at least basic capital markets knowledge or experience of shares, who understand the Company's risks, seeking high dividends and long term capital appreciation from the Asia Pacific region, and intend to invest their money for at least five years. This Company is designed to be used only as a component in a diversified investment portfolio and is not designed for investors who are unable to accept more than a minimal loss of their investment.

This investment has no maturity date. There are no circumstances under which Janus Henderson would be entitled to terminate the Company unilaterally. There are no circumstances under which the Company can be automatically terminated.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

Lower Risk 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Higher Risk

The risk indicator assumes that you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class.

This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions could impact the capacity of the PRIIPs manufacturer to pay you.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

The summary risk indicator does not include risks such as risks associated with gearing, portfolio concentration, single market exposure, currency risk, counterparty risk, regulatory risk, derivatives risk and emerging markets risk, for example. Details of all relevant risks are on the Company's website and in the annual report which can be found at www.hendersoninvestmenttrusts.com

Investment performance information

Large-cap companies are less risky than their small cap counterparts and tend to perform well in stable environments. However, they are typically a safe investment during downturns in the business cycle, as they are less sensitive to economic headwinds, so can continue to generate stable returns.

No benchmark or performance target.

What could affect my return positively?

By virtue of being more conservative and less interest rate sensitive, could perform better on a relative basis in an inflationary backdrop.

What could affect my return negatively?

Stock market movements may cause the value of investments and the income from them to fall as well as rise. Changes in exchange rates, inflation, and sentiment towards the Chinese economy can have an adverse effect on the value, price or income of investments.

In severe adverse market conditions you could lose some or all of your investment.

What happens if Janus Henderson Fund Management UK Ltd is unable to pay out?

In the event of the default or liquidation of Janus Henderson Fund Management UK Limited, there would be no direct impact on investors as the assets in the Trust are held independently of Janus Henderson. The Board of the Trust would seek to find a new investment manager. However, a default by the Trust or any of the underlying holdings could affect the value of your investment. You may sell your shares at any time on the London Stock Exchange using your share dealing service. Your shares are sold to another buyer in the market and not directly to the Trust or Janus Henderson Fund Management UK Limited. If the Trust goes into liquidation the investments will be sold and you will receive your pro rata share of the proceeds after settlement of any liabilities. Investment trusts are not covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for three different holding periods. They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest £ 10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

Costs over time

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs, and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

Investment: £ 10,000

Scenarios	If you cash in after 1 year	If you cash in after 3 years	If you cash in after 5 years
Total costs	£169.75	£517.96	£878.06

	Other ongoing costs	1.15%	The impact of the management fee payable to the Trust's investment manager (0.76%), the Trust's other administrative expenses (0.21%) and the ongoing costs of any underlying investments in funds within the Trust's portfolio (0.05%), totalling (1.02%); in addition, the impact of the cost of borrowing money to invest including interest & arrangement fees (0.13%) and stock lending fees (0.00%) but not any income or capital benefit of doing so.
Incidental costs	Performance fees	0.00%	No performance fees are applied.
	Carried interest	0.00%	There are no carried interests.

How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 5 years

Investment trusts should be considered medium to long term investments. This means 5 years or more. There is no minimum (or maximum) holding period and shares can be sold at any time after purchase. These transactions may be subject to dealing charges and taxes. There is no guarantee that any appreciation in the value of the Trust's investments will occur and investors may not get back the full value of their investments. The value of the shares and the income derived from them (if any) may go down as well as up. The share sale price will be based on trading prices at the time and is unlikely to equal the net asset value per share of the Trust. The share price, premium/discount and net asset value are available on the Trust's website.
